Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from A Comparative Scheme of the Moods, and Tenses in Cicero's Translations, From the Greek This work purports to be a scheme of the moods and tenses in Cicero's translations from the Greek, as compared with the moods and tenses in his originals. Accordingly, those originals have been collected and examined, and the syntactical phenomena in question arranged according to the usual categories. With each mood and tense as thus classified have been compared the representatives of it, more or less exact, which appear in Cicero's translations. The translations of Cicero, as distinguished from his original writings, are usually printed as an appendix in the standard editions. The edition of Baiter and Kayser has perhaps the most complete list, though a search through the entire Ciceronian corpus reveals a few more passages which appear to have been translated from extant originals. At this point, two questions are to be considered; first, to what extent do the parallel passages in Greek authors cited by the commentators represent Cicero's originals, and second, what are...
