A sight draft being payable on presentation (except in those states allowing days of grace), there is no need of formal acceptance. Acceptance is necessary in the case of time drafts, as they are not payable until the specified time after this acceptance. The acceptance of a draft makes the person or corporation accepting it liable to its owner for the amount, a draft being transferable by endorsement just as a check or a note. 997. In calculating the cost of a sight draft, days of grace--even when allowed--do not enter into the result, this being included in the rate charged. Time drafts are allowed days of grace, except in the states given in the Appendix, Art. 1305. The number of states in which days of grace are no longer allowed, increases yearly, there being no good reason for promising to pay in 60 da. when the intention of the signer is to take 63 da. 1000. 1. Although days of grace are not allowed in California, the pupils of other states should not be expected to know this. In states that grant days of grace, they should be allowed in every note or time draft, no matter where payable; while in the other states, pupils should be taught not to employ them in any case. The premium on the draft = $$1.75 \times .840 = \1.47 . The interest (with days of grace) = $$840 \times T_f \times $ = \13.02 . The cost of...
