Fire Water

By Betsy Graziani Fasbinder

She Writes Press. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 416 pages. Dimensions: 8.4in. x 5.5in. x 1.2in. Fire and Water is a dark story of passion, family secrets, and the enduring power of friendship. Katherine Murphy, a pediatric surgeon in San Francisco's premier medical center, UCSF, was raised in the ironic protection of her father's Irish pub by a patchwork family formed of misfits and orphans. She is book-brilliant, but unwise in the ways of love and life. When genuine love and deep passion present themselves in the form of Jake Bloom, a renowned artist of the immediate, she is in far too deep before she discovers his treacherous dark side of his creative genius. Only her shoot-from-the-lip friend, Mary K, sees past Jake's initial charms, but by then Kate's life has been indelibly altered. As Jake spirals into the depths of his mental illness, Kate is faced with previously unthinkable choices that demand her to search her soul and find her own true north. This is a story that redefines what family really means and proves that love is always a matter of life and death. Order now to receive this highly reviewed page-turner of a story. This item...
