Once upon a time there was a great artist who painted a beautiful picture. It was so wonderful that people stopped to gaze at it and to admire the marvel of its workmanship. Into it the painter had put all the love, all the joy, all the hope of many years. Now it so happened that the artist was called abroad and he knew that he might be absent for a long period; so he resolved that he would give the wonderful picture into the keeping of his little son. Next to the boy himself, it was the most precious thing he possessed. But he said, I will give it to my child to help him and to comfort him, and he will take care of it for me. Now when his father had gone the boy said, Here is something my father has given to me. It is mine to do with as I will. Let me destroy it!
