Not illustrated. 1897 Excerpt: . . . formation of Chapter in Honolulu, also letter from Hon. Joseph E. Washington, regarding the Tennessee Centennial. President General. In connection with this matter the Chair simply expresses one wish and one hope, and that is, that every State Regent, and every Chapter Regent, and every Vice-President General and the Chair will pledge their support to the National Board of Management to assist in every way within their power in making this a grand celebration. Reader reads letter from General Joseph C. Breckinridge, as follows: Mrs. A. E. Stevenson, President General, National Society, Daughters of the American Revolution, Washington, D. C. Madam: It may not be immediately practicable to bring the revolutionary soldiery under the care provided by the National Cemetery laws which only include those who died in the last war and in that with Mexico, but it seems that some decorous action by Congress or the patriotic societies in providing for the care and restoration of the public monuments erected in honor of such distinguished men as Elbridge Gerry, of Massachusetts, and Col. Tobias Lear, military secretary to General Washington, and quite a number of soldiers of the American Revolution buried in the Congressional Cemetery to whom private monuments have been erected, might now be taken. Quite a number of these monuments now present a very dilapidated appearance, and if some thing is not done soon, their epitaphs will be destroyed beyond redemption. An amendment providing for the proper care of these revolutionary monuments...
