Excerpt from Grandparent s Visitation Rights: Hearing Before the Subcommittee on Separation of Powers of the Committee on the Judiciary, United States Senate, Ninety-Eighth Congress, First Session on S. Con, Res, 40 November 15, 1983 The subcommittee met, pursuant to call, at 10:40 a.m., in room SD-628 of the Dirksen Senate Office Building, Hon. John P. East (chairman of the subcommittee) presiding. Staff present: Thomas A. Bovard, general counsel, and Scott L. Wilkinson. Jr., chief clerk. Opening Statement of Senator John P. East Senator East. I would like to convene, please, this hearing of the Subcommittee on Separation of Powers so that we might promptly take testimony this morning regarding Senate Concurrent Resolution 40. I am going to be very brief in my comments, because of the time constrictions under which we operate. I would like to say that I think the subject matter is very important: The question of grandparents visitation rights in the case of the contemporary broken home. I believe that grandparents are among the greatest victims of the disintegration of the American...
