I love his music, his energy. And I am amazed by his great talent. this is the reason I decided to REVIEW his music. But unlike other reviews that touch on history or musical technique, my review is different. This is because I decided to do this review by connecting to the spirit and energy in the music. And thus, my review comes from a spiritual place. For this reason, it is more intuitive, more sensing and more psychic. And why not do it this way? I don't think anyone, to this moment, has done something exactly like this review. And why me? I was born highly mediumistic and since I was a child I had dreams at night and premonitions during the day that would come to pass. Also, as an adult, I have worked as a psychic medium and connected to energy in other dimensions as well as this one. As such, I strongly believe that there are other dimensions of existence. Also, through time, I have learned that there are lots of religious belief systems and I respect them. And one of these belief systems is my own. I have had a full range of supernatural experiences that are personal to me. And based on these, I believe that there is life after death! And I believe that people in spirit can communicate with the living. Notwithstanding that, I want to make it...
